HEAD OF SCHOOL

We are currently seeking a Head of School to continue our mission to challenge and motivate all students to reach their full potential in mind, spirit, heart, and body. The ideal candidate is an outstanding builder of and leader within a culture of caring, faith, joy, and achievement. He/She also has strong relationship building and communication skills and has proven results in effective organizational performance and change management. The Head of School will work collaboratively with parents, community partners, regional Parish Pastors, Priests and advisory councils, and Diocese of Manchester leaders to expand the enrollment of our school. Complete job description available here.

Interested and qualified candidates must complete the Diocesan Administrator Application. Please forward the completed application with supporting documentation to the Catholic Schools Office, 153 Ash Street, PO Box 310, Manchester, NH 03105.

I love St. Joe's because all the teachers are nice. I also love St. Joe's because all the kids are nice. The food here is good, and if you bring extra money you can get ICE CREAM. There are so many other reasons that I could fill 100,000 papers.
