Emily Panopoulos

Teacher, Grade 2

Mrs. Emily Panopoulos, second grade teacher at St. Joseph Regional Catholic School, Salem, NH, graduated from St. Joseph's College of Maine in May 2011 with a Bachelors of Science in Elementary Education. She also holds a Masters Degree in special education.

Originally from New York, her family moved to the Seacoast of New Hampshire 15 years ago. Mrs. Panopoulos began her teaching career as the Assistant Teacher in the toddler room at "The Children's Center" in Kittery, Maine. She then taught preschool at Rye Country Day School for two years, prior to teaching for us in the St. Joe's Preschool.

In her spare time, she enjoys spending time with her husband Duy, and her family, going to the movies, hiking, and biking. She is very excited to start another school year at St. Joseph's Regional Catholic School, and is looking forward to a great year with her new 2nd graders!

St. Joseph Regional Catholic School (SJRCs) of Salem, NH, provides a complete education designed to challenge and motivate all students from Pre-K to Grade 8 to reach their full potential in mind, spirit, heart, and body. With Saint Joseph, the foster father of Jesus, as a model, SJRCs values its partnership with parents in the development of their children. The school's strong academic program, which is integrated with Christian values, promotes critical thinking and prepares students to succeed in their future educational pursuits, to practice good citizenship, and to be productive members of a global society. Welcoming students of all faiths in Southern NH and the Merrimack Valley, SJRCs is dedicated to maintaining a safe, caring, and respectful Catholic community in which each child's God-given talents are developed, nurtured, and challenged.
