Mrs. Mary Croteau has a background in both business and education. She has worked in the computer, venture capital, and executive recruiting fields. Her teaching experience began as a bilingual second grade classroom teacher in Massachusetts where she held dual certifications and tenure. She substitute taught in New Hampshire public schools at all grade levels and at St. Joseph's School, Salem, NH before becoming a full time member of the teaching staff.

In addition to teaching, Mrs. Croteau is the student council moderator, 8th grade New York Trip coordinator, and recently completed the Aspiring Leadership program through the Diocese (an intense course in administration). She plans on continuing this course of study through Creighton University's Catholic Leadership graduate certificate program.

Mrs. Croteau volunteers in her community parish and as a Buddy Ball (softball for special needs) coach. She also volunteers for her younger son's high school football program.

She holds a BA in Spanish with a minor in International Business from St. Mary's College, Notre Dame, IN and a MA in Teaching from Simmons College, Boston, MA. Mrs. Croteau is certified as a NH Experienced Educator in Elementary Education (K-8) and Spanish. Mrs. Croteau is pursuing a Catholic School Leadership Certificate program through Creighton University and is also a certified Catechist.

St. Joseph Regional Catholic School (SJRCs) of Salem, NH, provides a complete education designed to challenge and motivate all students from Pre-K to Grade 8 to reach their full potential in mind, spirit, heart, and body. With Saint Joseph, the foster father of Jesus, as a model, SJRCs values its partnership with parents in the development of their children. The school's strong academic program, which is integrated with Christian values, promotes critical thinking and prepares students to succeed in their future educational pursuits, to practice good citizenship, and to be productive members of a global society. Welcoming students of all faiths in Southern NH and the Merrimack Valley, SJRCs is dedicated to maintaining a safe, caring, and respectful Catholic community in which each child's God-given talents are developed, nurtured, and challenged.
