

Gabriella Kiefer

Teacher, Grade 2

Mrs. Gabriella Kiefer, Grade 2 Teacher at St. Joseph Regional Catholic School, Salem, NH, graduated from Lesley University in Cambridge, MA., earning a bachelor's degree in Elementary Education and Literature. Her classroom teaching experiences include infant/preschool to Grade Four. She has won an award for family relationships and communications through teaching.

Mrs. Kiefer started teaching in 2008, and began substitute teaching at St. Joe's in 2017. She quickly became acquainted with our school through long-term substituting and eagerly anticipated becoming a permanent part of the St. Joe's community.

Mrs. Kiefer has been a part of our church and school family since 2015 through activities like participating in multiple church events, being a classroom parent, participating in a variety of school committees and events, and co-chairing our successful 2018 St. Joe's Auction Gala with her husband Ken.

Mrs. Kiefer enjoys traveling to Maine every summer, reading, sharing her faith with others, and spending time with her husband Ken and two children, William and Nicolas.

St. Joseph Regional Catholic School (SJRCs) of Salem, NH, provides a complete education designed to challenge and motivate all students from Pre-K to Grade 8 to reach their full potential in mind, spirit, heart, and body. With Saint Joseph, the foster father of Jesus, as a model, SJRCs values its partnership with parents in the development of their children. The school's strong academic program, which is integrated with Christian values, promotes critical thinking and prepares students to succeed in their future educational pursuits, to practice good citizenship, and to be productive members of a global society. Welcoming students of all faiths in Southern NH and the Merrimack Valley, SJRCs is dedicated to maintaining a safe, caring, and respectful Catholic community in which each child's God-given talents are developed, nurtured, and challenged.
