

Betty Ann Beebe

Art Teacher

Mrs. Betty Ann Beebe, Art Teacher at St. Joseph Regional Catholic School,

Salem, NH, graduated Magna Cum Laude from Notre Dame College, earning certifications in both Art and Elementary Education.

Mrs. Beebe has been working in Catholic Education for over 30 years. She began her educational career as a first grade teacher at Villa Augustina in Goffstown and spent the last 22 years in various positions at St. Anthony School (Cardinal Lacroix Academy) in Manchester. One of her greatest joys was developing and teaching an art program there. Her other roles were second grade teacher, librarian, technology teacher, and principal. Now retired from full-time work, she is very excited to join the SJRCS community as part-time art instructor.

Mrs. Beebe currently resides in Manchester, New Hampshire with her husband Donald. She enjoys frequent trips to their second home in Stockbridge, Massachusetts to spend time with family, reading (especially historical fiction), and virtual visits with her two grandsons in Texas.

St. Joseph Regional Catholic School (SJRCS) of Salem, NH, provides a complete education designed to challenge and motivate all students from Pre-K to Grade 8 to reach their full potential in mind, spirit, heart, and body. With Saint Joseph, the foster father of Jesus, as a model, SJRCS values its partnership with parents in the development of their children. The school's strong academic program, which is integrated with Christian values, promotes critical thinking and prepares students to succeed in their future educational pursuits, to practice good citizenship, and to be productive members of a global society. Welcoming students of all faiths in Southern NH and the Merrimack Valley, SJRCS is dedicated to maintaining a safe, caring, and respectful Catholic community in which each child's God-given talents are developed, nurtured, and challenged.
