

Mrs. Alexandra Schack

Teacher, Grade 1

Mrs. Alexandra Schack, Grade 1 Teacher at St. Joseph Regional Catholic School, Salem, NH, graduated from Granite State College with both her Early Childhood Education Bachelor's degree and Post Baccalaureate Certification earning certifications in both Early Childhood Education and Early Childhood Special Education.

Mrs. Schack has been working in Catholic Education for the last three years and most recently at Cardinal Lacroix Academy in Manchester. Prior to coming to St. Joseph's, she has worked the last fifteen years in Manchester public schools as well as teaching in private preschool and daycare programs. She is very excited to join the St. Joe's community and work with all staff, students and families.

Mrs. Schack currently resides in Bedford with her Covid puppy, Finnegan. She has four adult children who live from Massachusetts to North Carolina. Her youngest is a sophomore in college majoring in dance, one twin is stationed at Fort Bragg, NC and is serving our country in the 82nd Airborne. Another twin lives and works in Massachusetts, and her oldest lives and works in Massachusetts as well. She is looking forward to when they marry and have children! Mrs. Schack enjoys gardening and traveling. When traveling the world is less cumbersome, Mrs. Schack will be off to Italy to visit a variety of friends and the countryside.
