

Marcie Nee

Teacher, Grade 2

Mrs. Marcie Nee, Grade 2 Teacher at St. Joseph Regional Catholic School, Salem,

NH, has taught in both Christian and Public elementary schools for the past 25+ years. Mrs. Nee holds a Bachelor of Arts in English/writing and psychology, a Bachelor of Science in Special Education with a highly qualified teaching certificate in Early Childhood K-3, a Special Education certificate K-8 and is a trained Orton Gillingham Reading Specialist serving those who struggle with Dyslexia. She believes that we all learn when motivated and engaged. Teaching is a gift, a vocation, not an occupation. Mrs. Nee intends to use her gift of teaching to educate, motivate and engage her students in the love of learning and in the love of Christ Jesus.

St. Joseph Regional Catholic School (SJRCs) of Salem, NH, provides a complete education designed to challenge and motivate all students from Pre-K to Grade 8 to reach their full potential in mind, spirit, heart, and body. With Saint Joseph, the foster father of Jesus, as a model, SJRCs values its partnership with parents in the development of their children. The school's strong academic program, which is integrated with Christian values, promotes critical thinking and prepares students to succeed in their future educational pursuits, to practice good citizenship, and to be productive members of a global society. Welcoming students of all faiths in Southern NH and the Merrimack Valley, SJRCs is dedicated to maintaining a safe, caring, and respectful Catholic community in which each child's God-given talents are developed, nurtured, and challenged.
