

Ms. Olya Mahoney

Teacher, Grade 4

Ms. Olya Mahoney, Grade 4 Teacher at St. Joseph Regional Catholic School, Salem, NH, graduated from Southern New Hampshire University with a Bachelor's degree in Elementary Education and a Master's degree in Psychology of Children and Adolescents. Miss Mahoney had worked as a certified paraprofessional for the Special Education department of Goffstown prior to becoming the 4th grade teacher. She worked with many different students with a vast array of learning disabilities.

Ms. Mahoney has one daughter, her name is Brigette. She also has 4 cats and a Mini-Rex bunny named Cuddles. She has two sisters who also live in New Hampshire. Ms. Mahoney came from Russia at age 7 with her two sisters. She enjoys painting, drawing, knitting, and being outside as much as possible with family.

St. Joseph Regional Catholic School (SJRCs) of Salem, NH, provides a complete education designed to challenge and motivate all students from Pre-K to Grade 8 to reach their full potential in mind, spirit, heart, and body. With Saint Joseph, the foster father of Jesus, as a model, SJRCs values its partnership with parents in the development of their children. The school's strong academic program, which is integrated with Christian values, promotes critical thinking and prepares students to succeed in their future educational pursuits, to practice good citizenship, and to be productive members of a global society. Welcoming students of all faiths in Southern NH and the Merrimack Valley, SJRCs is dedicated to maintaining a safe, caring, and respectful Catholic community in which each child's God-given talents are developed, nurtured, and challenged.