

Lexie Kearley

Marketing, Enrollment and Development Director

Lexie Kearley, is the Director of Marketing, Enrollment & Development at St. Joseph Regional Catholic School, Salem, NH. She started her career with St. Joe's as a student, attending the school from kindergarten to eighth grade. After graduating from Salem High School, Mrs. Kearley was accepted into the Bachelor of Fine Arts Program through the Conservatory of Performing Arts at Point Park University with concentrated studies in Ballet Performance. She continued her education at Bentley University where she studied Business Economics.

Mrs. Kearley has over 15 years of marketing and fundraising experience, working for multiple non-profit organizations and political campaigns. Volunteerism and being an active and contributing member to the community is very important to Mrs. Kearley. Prior to joining the St. Joseph Regional Catholic School staff, she volunteered for many fundraising events for the school, including the annual "Auction/Gala" in 2019 and 2020 where she acted as Co-Chair for the event. She is also an active member of the Greater Salem General Federation of Women's Club.

Mrs. Kearley resides in Hampstead, NH with her husband Eric, daughter Madison, son Jacob (both St. Joseph Regional Catholic School students) and three year old German Shepherd Maverick. In their free time, the "Kearley Crew" can be found go-karting, skiing, traveling or just enjoying a walk together in their neighborhood. Family time is cherished for the Kearley's, and they soak up as much of it as possible.
