Elizabeth Roth

Safe Environment Coordinator

Guidance Counselor

Elizabeth (Beth) Roth, is the Safe Environment Coordinator and Guidance Counselor at St. Joseph Regional Catholic School, Salem, NH.

Mrs. Beth Roth brings multifaceted career experiences to her position as the Guidance Counselor of St. Joseph Regional Catholic School. As a New Hampshire Licensed Mental Health Counselor for over 25 years, Mrs. Roth engaged in private practice that focused on family and child therapy matters. She served on the Center for Life Management Board of Directors from 2006-2021 and taught Behavioral Science courses on the undergraduate and graduate level for the University Systems of New Hampshire during this same period of time.

Mrs. Roth holds a Bachelor's Degree in Psychology and her Master of Arts in Counseling from the University of New Hampshire. She served as St. Joseph Regional Catholic School Guidance counselor for a short period of time early in her counseling career and is looking forward to serving the St. Joe's community again. She can usually be available to students and parents at the school on Tuesdays and Thursdays.

St. Joseph Regional Catholic School (SJRCs) of Salem, NH, provides a complete education designed to challenge and motivate all students from Pre-K to Grade 8 to reach their full potential in mind, spirit, heart, and body. With Saint Joseph, the foster father of Jesus, as a model, SJRCs values its partnership with parents in the development of their children. The school's strong academic program, which is integrated with Christian values, promotes critical thinking and prepares students to succeed in their future educational pursuits, to practice good citizenship, and to be productive members of a global society. Welcoming students of all faiths in Southern NH and the Merrimack Valley, SJRCs is dedicated to maintaining a safe, caring, and respectful Catholic community in which each child's God-given talents are developed, nurtured, and challenged.
