

Stephanie Fallavollita

Junior High Language Arts, Religion Teacher

Stephanie Fallavollita, is the Junior High Language Arts/Religion Teacher at St. Joseph Regional Catholic School, Salem, NH. Stephanie started at St. Joseph's in 2021. She earned her degree from Notre Dame College which was located in Manchester, NH. She graduated with a dual certification in Elementary Education grades K-8 and General Special Education grades K-12.

Stephanie started her career as a resource room teacher working with students in grades 3 and 4. This was a great experience but led her to realize that what she really wanted was a classroom position. Since that time, Stephanie has worked with students in grades pre-K through 8th grade, either as a substitute teacher or a full-time teacher. She has worked for 17 years in the Catholic School system working with students in grades 5 through 8.

When she is not teaching, Stephanie enjoys spending time with her husband and two children. They enjoy going to Cape Cod and Disney World together. She is also an avid reader and enjoys mysteries.

St. Joseph Regional Catholic School (SJRCs) of Salem, NH, provides a complete education designed to challenge and motivate all students from Pre-K to Grade 8 to reach their full potential in mind, spirit, heart, and body. With Saint Joseph, the foster father of Jesus, as a model, SJRCs values its partnership with parents in the development of their children. The school's strong academic program, which is integrated with Christian values, promotes critical thinking and prepares students to succeed in their future educational pursuits, to practice good citizenship, and to be productive members of a global society. Welcoming students of all faiths in Southern NH and the Merrimack Valley, SJRCs is dedicated to maintaining a safe, caring, and respectful Catholic community in which each child's God-given talents are developed, nurtured, and challenged.
