

Mariela DiTullio

Grade 8 Homeroom

8th Religion, Spanish

Teacher

Mariela DiTullio, Grade 8 Homeroom Teacher at St. Joseph Regional Catholic

School, Salem, NH, is from Buenos Aires, Argentina where she was a first grade teacher after graduating from college. She moved to the United States in 1999. She has more than 15 years of experience teaching Spanish for English language speakers from ages 15 months to adults. Previously to working at Saint Joseph School, Mrs. Di Tullio worked in different Catholic schools, where she created a comprehensive Spanish curriculum for Pre-K and grades 3 to 8th, with a successful rate of students skipping Spanish 1 to be placed in Spanish 2 the first year of high school.

Mrs. Di Tullio has also gained a medical and community interpreter degree. She has been working for the past three years in many different hospitals and school districts around New Hampshire.

Mrs. Di Tullio has no family in the United States except for her husband Mariano and her two boys Mark and Kyle. Mrs. Di Tullio enjoys spending time with her family when they visit from Argentina, traveling to Disney once a year (because she is a huge fan of Mickey), knitting and cooking.

future educational pursuits, to practice good citizenship, and to be productive members of a global society. Welcoming students of all faiths in Southern NH and the Merrimack Valley, SJRCS is dedicated to maintaining a safe, caring, and respectful Catholic community in which each child's God-given talents are developed, nurtured, and challenged.