

Rick Beshara

Grade 5 Teacher

Mr. Rick Beshara is the Grade 5 teacher at St. Joseph Regional Catholic School, Salem, NH.

Mr. Beshara is a veteran St. Joe's teacher who is returning to the school! He taught fourth grade at St. Joe's from 2015-2017. He resigned when he moved out of state, but now lives in Bradford and is delighted to be back in the school.

He has 38 years of experience - 19 years as a teacher and 19 years as a Principal. He taught all levels of education – elementary, junior high, high school, and college. Most of his career was working in Methuen, Massachusetts.

He looks forward to meeting his students and their families.

St. Joseph Regional Catholic School (SJRCs) of Salem, NH, provides a complete education designed to challenge and motivate all students from Pre-K to Grade 8 to reach their full potential in mind, spirit, heart, and body. With Saint Joseph, the foster father of Jesus, as a model, SJRCs values its partnership with parents in the development of their children. The school's strong academic program, which is integrated with Christian values, promotes critical thinking and prepares students to succeed in their future educational pursuits, to practice good citizenship, and to be productive members of a global society. Welcoming students of all faiths in Southern NH and the Merrimack Valley, SJRCs is dedicated to maintaining a safe, caring, and respectful Catholic community in which each child's God-given talents are developed, nurtured, and challenged.
